Lackland AFB Officers' Spouses' Club Scholarship Program Award Plan

I. ELIGIBILITY FOR AWARD

- A. All seniors graduating from a San Antonio area high school (or homeschooled equivalent) are eligible if they are the dependents of Armed Forces personnel who are permanently assigned at Lackland AFB (or have PCS'd from Lackland within six months prior to graduation date), retired, on remote assignment, or deceased.
- i. Armed Forces personnel are defined as members currently serving in any branch of the United States Military, including members of the National Guard or Reserve Corps.
 - ii. Candidates who have previously received an LOSC Scholarship Award are not eligible.
- B. The civilian spouses of Armed Forces personnel are eligible if they are the spouse or widow of Armed Forces personnel who are permanently assigned at Lackland AFB, retired, on remote assignment, or deceased. The applicant spouse shall be pursuing a technical, associate, undergraduate or graduate degree.
- i. Armed Forces personnel are defined as members currently serving in any branch of the United States Military, including members of the National Guard or Reserve Corps.
 - ii. Candidates who have previously received a LOSC Scholarship Award are not eligible.

II. CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

- A. Selection for the LOSC Scholarship Award shall be based upon the following criteria in the order in which they are listed.
- i. Scholastic Achievement
 - ii. Extracurricular Activities (including but not limited to campus involvement, work experience, and community contribution)
 - iii. Personal Statement of Purpose
 - iv. Letters of Recommendation

III. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE APPLICANT

- A. The applicant shall contact his/her high school and request that the school mail the following information to the Scholarship Chairperson (refer to item IV for contact information).
1. Transcripts of high school grades
 2. College Entrance Exam Scores
 3. Exception: A spouse applicant with post high school academic work must submit official transcripts to be used in lieu of high school transcripts and college entrance exam scores.
- B. The applicant will be personally responsible for submitting the following items to the Scholarship Chairperson.
- i. A completed LOSC Scholarship Application Form and signed Agreement
 - ii. A copy of sponsor's and applicant's valid military ID card
 - iii. A resume including a list of schools (with dates of attendance), activities, honors, and work experience

- iv. A personal statement of purpose of no more than 250 words discussing the principal goals the applicant has set and the role of higher education in attaining these goals
- v. Two letters of recommendation that meet the following criteria
 1. At least one letter must be from a member of the applicant's school faculty or administration.
 2. All letters must be from non-family members.

C. Only complete applications will be considered. (See item III)

IV. APPLICATION SUBMISSION

A. Applications must be postmarked no later than March 1, 2010. Send complete application packet (and official academic records) to:

Lackland Officers' Spouses' Club
Attention: Scholarship Chairman
PO Box 27491
San Antonio TX 78227-0491

V. AWARD AVAILABILITY AND VALUE

A. The LOSC Board of Governors will determine the number and value of scholarship awards given each year.

VI. SELECTION COMMITTEE

A. Composition

- i. The selection committee shall be comprised of a panel of community educators selected by the LOSC Board of Governors.

B. Duties

- i. When the LOSC Board of Governors has determined the number of scholarship awards to be presented, the duties of the selection committee shall include the following:
 1. Selection of the winner(s) in numerical order upon the basis of the criteria listed in item II, Criteria for Selection
 2. Selection of alternates in numerical order, in the event that winners cannot accept the award for whatever reason
- ii. Decisions of the selection committee are final.

VII. RECIPIENT'S USE OF AWARD

- A. The student must use the scholarship at an accredited two- or four-year college, university, or vocational school during the 2010-2011 academic year.
- B. Acceptance of a full scholarship (includes the Post-9/11 GI Bill) to an accredited college, university, or vocational school would make the intended recipient ineligible for the monetary award. Acceptance of an appointment to a U.S. Service Academy or Preparatory School would also render the student ineligible.
 - i. Full scholarship is defined as payment of tuition, room, board, books, and any other fees charged by the educational institution.

- C. The funds must be used for the payment of tuition, charged by the Finance Office or Business Office of the institution.
- D. Funds may not be used for personal expenses or fines of any sort that are billed to a student account (including, but not limited to, travel or parking).
- E. Recipients must submit verification of enrollment from the educational institution to the Scholarship Chairperson no later than May 14, 2010.
 - i. Should a recipient be unable to provide verification from an accredited two- or four-year college, university, or vocational school by the deadline, he/she must contact the LOSC Scholarship Chairperson before the deadline expires to make appropriate arrangements.
 - ii. Any recipient who fails to comply will no longer be eligible for award money.
- F. The LOSC Welfare Treasurer shall issue a check in the full amount of the scholarship payable to the educational institution for use by the recipient by July 14, 2010, contingent upon receipt of all necessary information from the recipient.
 - i. This check shall be forwarded to the educational institution by the Scholarship Chairperson with a letter of instruction indicating that any amount of this scholarship not used for the designated purposes shall be returned to LOSC.
 - ii. Additionally, the school shall be notified that, should the total amount of scholarships awarded to the recipient exceed the total cost of tuition as described in item VII(C), the LOSC Scholarship Award shall be returned so that the award might be reissued to an alternate winner's educational institution.
- G. The LOSC will host a reception honoring scholarship winners on Thursday, May 20, 2010. Attendance is highly encouraged.
